

Digitalisation for a just social compact: Global South lessons from the COVID- 19 pandemic

Issue area one: Labour

Outputs and resources

An IDRC COVID-19 Responses for Equity (CORE) Project

Reports and papers: Labour
Title	Description	Publication date
Digitally enabled work and women's empowerment	Highlights evidence of instances where existing gender inequalities and norms in the labour market are actually being reinforced through digitally enabled work.	August 2023

Methodology notes and slide sets: Social Protection
Title	Description	Publication date
Impact of COVID-19 on households and the workforce in India: survey methodology notes	Details the methodology used to conduct the national survey in India. It can be used by other researchers to replicate the study for comparative purposes, and/or use the methods used for their own studies.	November 2021
Sri Lanka Social Safety Net Qualitative Research (Methodology note)	Details the methodology to carry out a qualitative study on social safety nets spanning across 13 districts	June 2023
Social protection for private sector workers (slide set)	Part of a presentation to the Labour Minister of Sri Lanka advocating for the need for a comprehensive, adaptive social protection system for all workers, including those employed in the private sector.	January 2024